➤ Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice sets out:

- › How and why we collect and use your information
- › How you may access your information held by us
- › What happens if you do not wish to provide us with information
- › Whether we provide your information to other entities
- › The availability of our Privacy Policy
- › When we can disclose certain information to a credit reporting body
- › How a credit reporting body may use your information
- › Whether we disclose your information overseas and if so, where
- › How you can contact us

Types of information we collect

Personal information includes any information which may identify you, such as your name, date of birth, address, the number and ages of your dependants, and employment information. If you use our website or mobile applications, we may collect information about your location or activity, including IP address, use of third-party sites, and other user information.

Credit-related information means both:

- › Credit information, which is information which includes your identity; the type, terms and maximum amount of credit provided to you, including when that credit was provided and when it was repaid; repayment history information, financial hardship information (including information that any repayments are affected by a financial hardship arrangement), default information (including overdue payments); payment information; new arrangement information; details of any serious credit infringements; court proceedings information; personal insolvency information and publicly available information; and
- › Credit eligibility information, which is credit reporting information supplied to us by a credit reporting body, and any information that we derive from it

We refer to personal information and credit-related information collectively as 'information' in this document.

Collection and use of your information

We collect and use your information to:

- › Provide you with membership benefits, financial services and products or information about those benefits, services and products
- › Provide you with information about financial services and products from 3rd parties we have arrangements with
- › Conduct market and demographic research in relation to the products and services you and other members acquire from us
- › To comply with legislative requirements and to prevent fraud and other criminal activities
- › Establish your eligibility for a loan
- › Establish your capacity to repay a loan

The law also requires us to collect and hold your information:

- For our register of members under the Corporations Act
- To verify your identity under the AML/CTF Act
- To assess your capacity to pay a loan under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act not be able to admit you to membership or provide you with the financial products and services you applied for.

How we collect information

We will collect information about you and your financial position from you directly (including in application forms and during our communication with you).

When you apply for a loan, we will collect information about your credit history (including previous applications for credit as well as your repayment history) from a credit reporting body.

We may also collect information about you from other people and organisations, for example, your representatives, your employer and service providers, including to prevent fraud.

We may, from time to time, collect sensitive information about you including your health information if you disclose this to us during your communications with us (e.g. as part of a hardship application or during a phone call with us).

If you give us information about someone else (e.g. a joint borrower or guarantor), please show them a copy of this Notice so they may understand how their information may be used or disclosed by us in connection with your dealings with us.

What if you don't wish to provide us with information?

If you do not give us the information we require, we may not be able to admit you to membership or provide you with the financial products and services you applied for.

How you can access your information

You can request access to your information at any time.

Providing your information to credit reporting bodies

The credit reporting body we disclose information to is Equifax Australia (Equifax).

If you do not make your repayments when they fall due or commit a serious credit infringement, we may disclose this to Equifax.

Any information we provide to Equifax will be included in reports provided to credit providers to help them to assess your creditworthiness.

When you have a loan with us, we may disclose the following to Equifax:

- › The fact that you have applied for a loan
- › Details of the loan, when approved
- › When payments are due
- › Your repayment history with us
- › Whether you have entered into a financial hardship arrangement

You can ask Equifax not to use your information for pre-screening of direct marketing by a credit provider. You can also ask them not to use or disclose your information if you reasonably believe that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud.

Equifax's policy on the management of information is available at equifax.com.au.
