Section 2: Important Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice sets out:

- > How and why we collect and use your information
- > How you may access your information held by us
- > What happens if you do not wish to provide us with information
- > Whether we provide your information to other entities
- > The availability of our Privacy Policy
- > When we can disclose certain information to a credit reporting body
- > How a credit reporting body may use your information
- > Whether we disclose your information overseas and if so, where
- > How you can contact us

Types of information we collect

Personal information includes any information which may identify you, such as your name, date of birth, address, the number and ages of your dependants, and employment information. If you use our website or mobile applications, we may collect information about your location or activity, including IP address, use of third-party sites, and other user information.

Credit-related information means both:

- > Credit information, which is information which includes your identity; the type, terms and maximum amount of credit provided to you, including when that credit was provided and when it was repaid; repayment history information, financial hardship information (including information that any repayments are affected by a financial hardship arrangement), default information (including overdue payments); payment information; new arrangement information; details of any serious credit infringements; court proceedings information; personal insolvency information and publicly available information; and
- > Credit eligibility information, which is credit reporting information supplied to us by a credit reporting body, and any information that we derive from it

We refer to personal information and credit-related information collectively as 'information' in this document.

Collection and use of your information

We collect and use your information to:

- > Provide you with membership benefits, financial services and products or information about those benefits, services and products
- > Provide you with information about financial services and products from 3rd parties we have arrangements with
- > Conduct market and demographic research in relation to the products and services you and other members acquire from us
- > To comply with legislative requirements and to prevent fraud and other criminal activities
- > Establish your eligibility for a loan
- > Establish your capacity to repay a loan
- > Protect the safety and security of our staff and visitors

The law also requires us to collect and hold your information:

- > For our register of members under the Corporations Act
- > To verify your identity under the AML/CTF Act
- > To assess your capacity to pay a loan under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act

How we collect information

We will collect information about you and your financial position from you directly (including in application forms and during our communication with you).

When you apply for a loan, we will collect information about your credit history (including previous applications for credit as well as your repayment history) from a credit reporting body.

We may also collect information about you from other people and organisations, for example, your representatives, your employer and service providers, including to prevent fraud.

We may, from time to time, collect sensitive information about you including your health information if you disclose this to us during your communications with us (e.g. as part of a hardship application or during a phone call with us).

If you give us information about someone else (e.g. a joint borrower or guarantor), please show them a copy of this Notice so they may understand how their information may be used or disclosed by us in connection with your dealings with us.

What if you don't wish to provide us with information?

If you do not give us the information we require, we may not be able to admit you to membership or provide you with the financial products and services you applied for.

How you can access your information

You can request access to your information at any time.

Providing your information to credit reporting bodies

The credit reporting body we disclose information to is Equifax Australia (Equifax), formally Veda Advantage.

If you do not make your repayments when they fall due or commit a serious credit infringement, we may disclose this to Equifax. Any information we provide to Equifax will be included in reports provided to credit providers to help them to assess your creditworthiness.

You can ask Equifax not to use your information for pre-screening of direct marketing by a credit provider. You can also ask them not to use or disclose your information if you reasonably believe that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud.

Equifax's policy on the management of information is available at equifax.com.au.

You can contact Equifax by:

Phone: 1300 762 207

Mail: Level 15/100 Arthur Street, North Sydney NSW 2060

Providing your information to other entities

We disclose your information to other entities.

We can disclose your information to:

- > Entities that verify identity
- > Providers of payments and card services, when you make a transaction using a payment service or a card
- > Lawyers, conveyancers, accountants, brokers, agents and other service providers who represent you and/or provide services to you
- > Contractors for statement printing and mail out, card production, market research or direct marketing
- > Affiliated product and service suppliers to provide information to you about their services and products
- > Credit reporting bodies and other financial institutions that have previously lent to you
- > Persons you use as referees
- > Any person who introduces you to us
- > Your employer
- > Your joint borrower(s), account holder(s) or signatories
- > For property loans – property valuers, insurers and online property exchange networks for electronic conveyancing (PEXA)
- > Mortgage documentation service
- > Trustees and managers of securitised loan programs
- > Any guarantor or proposed guarantor of a loan
- > Debt collection agencies, lawyers, process servers, our auditors
- > Qantas Airways Limited for awarding Qantas Points
- > Organisations that help identify illegal activities and prevent fraud

We will also disclose your information to law enforcement and government agencies as required by law.

Where you are applying for or hold a loan, we may also disclose personal information, including information about your other credit liabilities, repayments and defaults, to credit reporting bodies.

Our privacy policy

Our Privacy Policy is available at quodosbank.com.au.

The Policy contains information about:

- > how you can access your information
- > how you can seek correction of your information
- > how you make a complaint and how we will deal with it
- > in what overseas countries we are likely to disclose your information
- > how we manage your credit-related personal information.

Disclosure to overseas recipients

We may disclose your information to the United Kingdom if you make online purchases using a Visa debit or credit card as part of the Visa Secure and EFTPOS Secure service.

We may also disclose your information overseas if you request us to arrange an international funds transfer (more information will be provided when you make such a request).

However, if we do disclose this information outside Australia, we will do so on the basis that the information will be used only for the purposes set out in this document.

Section 4: Declaration and Signature

I declare that:

I have received and read the Qudos RSA PDS dated 1 September 2023.

The details I have entered, and the statements I have made, in this application form are current, true and correct.

I am applying for a Qudos RSA and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Qudos RSA as varied from time to time.

I acknowledge that Qudos Bank will deduct any applicable fees, taxes, and charges (including any government charges) from my Qudos RSA.

I am eligible to contribute to the Qudos RSA.

I will only make contributions to the Qudos RSA if at the time of making those contributions I am still eligible to contribute.

I acknowledge that the interest rate applying to the Qudos RSA is not guaranteed and will vary from time to time.

I understand the information in the PDS and this form including information about the collection, disclosure and use of my tax file number, and privacy.

I consent to personal information collected about me being used for the purposes, and disclosed in the circumstances, permitted or required by law from time to time.

Individual tax residency self-certification

Confidential communication

Tax regulations require Qudos Bank to collect and report certain information about an Account Holder's tax residence.

If your tax residence (or the Account Holder, if you are completing the form on their behalf) is located outside Australia or where you do not provide a valid Self-Certification we may be legally obliged to pass on your information to relevant tax authorities.

Please fill in this form if you are an individual Account Holder, Sole Trader or Sole Proprietor. For joint or multiple Account Holders, use a separate form for each individual person.

For more information on tax residence, please consult your Tax Adviser or the information at the OECD automatic exchange of information portal. Attached as an Appendix to this Self-Certification are summary descriptions of select defined terms.

Note: If you are not the Account Holder please indicate the capacity in which you are signing the form. If signing under a power of attorney please also attach a certified copy of the power of attorney.

Appendix

Note: These are selected summaries of defined terms provided to assist you with the completion of this form. Further details can be found with the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (the CRS), the associated Commentary to the CRS, and domestic guidance. This can be found at OECD automatic exchange of information portal (oecd.org/tax/transparency/automaticexchangeofinformation.htm).

If you have any questions then please contact your tax adviser or domestic tax authority.

Account Holder

The term “Account Holder” means the person listed or identified as the holder of a Financial Account. A person, other than a Financial Institution, holding a Financial Account for the benefit of another person as an agent, a custodian, a nominee, a signatory, an investment advisor, an intermediary, or as a legal guardian, is not treated as the Account Holder. In these circumstances that other person is the Account Holder. For example in the case of a parent/child relationship where the parent is acting as a legal guardian, the child is regarded as the Account Holder. With respect to a jointly held account, each joint holder is treated as an Account Holder.

Controlling Person

This is a natural person who exercises control over an entity. Where an entity Account Holder is treated as a Passive Non-Financial Entity (“NFE”) then a Financial Institution must determine whether such Controlling Persons are Reportable Persons. This definition corresponds to the term “beneficial owner” as described in Recommendation 10 and the Interpretative Note on Recommendation 10 of the Financial Action Task Force Recommendations (as adopted in February 2012). If the account is maintained for an entity of which the individual is a Controlling Person, then the “Controlling Person tax residency self-certification” form should be completed instead of this form.

Entity

The term “Entity” means a legal person or a legal arrangement, such as a corporation, organisation, partnership, trust or foundation.

Financial Account

A Financial Account is an account maintained by a Financial Institution and includes: Depository Accounts; Custodial Accounts; Equity and debt interest in certain Investment Entities; Cash Value Insurance Contracts; and Annuity Contracts.

Participating Jurisdiction

A Participating Jurisdiction means a jurisdiction with which an agreement is in place pursuant to which it will provide the information required on the automatic exchange of financial account information set out in the Common Reporting Standard and that is identified in a published list.

Reportable Account

The term “Reportable Account” means an account held by one or more Reportable Persons or by a Passive NFE with one or more Controlling Persons that is a Reportable Person.

Reportable Jurisdiction

A Reportable Jurisdiction is a jurisdiction with which an obligation to provide financial account information is in place and that is identified in a published list.

Reportable Person

A Reportable Person is defined as an individual who is tax resident in a Reportable Jurisdiction under the tax laws of that jurisdiction. Dual resident individuals may rely on the tiebreaker rules contained in tax conventions (if applicable) to solve cases of double residence for purposes of determining their residence for tax purposes.

TIN (including “functional equivalent”)

The term “TIN” means Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an Entity and used to identify the individual or Entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Further details of acceptable TINs can be found at the OECD automatic exchange of information portal (oecd.org/tax/transparency/automaticexchangeofinformation.htm).

Some jurisdictions do not issue a TIN. However, these jurisdictions often utilise some other high integrity number with an equivalent level of identification (a “functional equivalent”). Examples of that type of number include, for individuals, a social security/insurance number, citizen/personal identification/service code/number, and resident registration number.
